INTRODUCING THE AERIN FRAGRANCE COLLECTION

Each one of these fragrances tells its own story, has its own personality. It is the most personal and intimate expression of Aerin, her life, her memories. We are excited to share this collection with you.

GARDENIA RATTAN

"Gardenia Rattan is the perfect Summer day—warm sun, beautiful sea and fresh flowers."

Gardenia Rattan captures the spirit of Summer. Like a breath of sea spray, sparkling Wet Marine Notes envelop the senses while a gentle blend of white flowers including Gardenia, Tuberose and Tiare Tahiti exude lush femininity. Amber adds rich texture, like the last warming rays of the perfect Summer day.

AMBER MUSK

"Amber Musk is a warm, inviting scent you want to wrap yourself in—like a soft cozy blanket on a cold snowy night."

Amber Musk blends sensual florals, distinctive amber and creamy musk. Ambrox makes a velvety first impression, contrasted by a succulent burst of Coconut Water and the femininity of Rose Centifolia Absolute. Like the glow of amber flames, lingering Benzoin & Musk infuses the fragrance with warmth.

LILAC PATH

"There is something very special about Spring flowers—as fast as they bloom, they disappear. Lilac Path captures the spirit of Spring and makes it last."

Lilac Path weaves a delicate story of crisp greens, rich blooms and delicate petals. Evocative Lilac infuses the scent with inviting depth, heightened by lush fragrant Galbanum. Creamy Jasmine Lactones blend with soft Angelica Seed Oil and Orange Flower Supra.

IKAT JASMINE

"Ikat Jasmine personifies a modern woman—effortless style and intriguing femininity."

The impeccable pairing of Jasmine Sambac and Jasmine Egypt Infusion is enhanced with exotic Tuberose Fleur in a fragrance rich with velvety body and soft freshness. A delicate touch of Honeysuckle invigorates the senses, while Tuberose Infusion and Sandalwood add subtle intensity and luminous depth as captivating as the woman who wears it.

EVENING ROSE

"The pairing of Rose and Cognac are intriguing and unexpected, like the allure of an evening in the city."

Evening Rose is vibrant with contrast. Juicy Blackberry and rich Cognac unexpectedly blend with voluptuous Rose Centifolia and Bulgarian Rose Absolute in an intriguing, alluring elixir. Incense, sensuous and luxurious, imparts soft warmth, like a lingering memory of an unforgettable evening.
